One Last Question

EIP Program

I went to this party mom. I remember what you said,
You told me not to drink mom, so I had pop instead.

I felt so proud inside mom, the way you said I would,
Even though my friends laughed mom, I did what you said I should.

I know I did the right thing mom, I know you're always right.
Now the party's over mom, not a beer in sight.

I got inside my car. I knew I'd get home in one piece.
I like the way you made me feel, so responsible and sweet.

I started to drive away mom, but as I pulled onto the road,
The other guy didn't see me mom, he hit me like a load.

I lie here on the pavement mom, I heard the policeman say,
The other guy was drunk mom, now I'm the one to pay.

I see blood around me mom, most of it is mine.
I heard the paramedics say, I'll die in a short time.

He didn't know where he was going, He was at the same party as I.
The only difference is, he's the one who drank mom, But I'm the one to die.

Why do people drink mom? It can ruin your whole life.
If someone would have told him, I could be alive.

Tell my family not to cry mom, and tell them to be brave.
When I'm in heaven, write "Daddy's Baby", on my grave.

My breath is getting shorter mom, but before I say "Good-bye",
I have one last question, "I'm not the one who drank, so why am I the one to die?"

So now it's the end mom, I wish I could look you in the eye, and say these final words mom....."I LOVE YOU AND GOOD-BYE."
